

Literacy overview.

Monday Literacy Lesson 1

Read the story The Messy magpie

Write a letter from Morris to the humans telling them why it is not good to drop litter on the floor.

Things to consider:-

Animals can get hurt if they tread on old bottle tops or tin lids

Animals can get stuck in bottles or bags and die.

Animals might eat things made out of plastic and become poorly.

Places don't look pretty if they are covered in litter.

How are you going to start the letter?

Introduce yourself.

Say why you are cross. What have the humans done that is wrong? Why should they stop?

How can the humans put it right?

What have you learnt?

End the letter with love from. ...

Remember think of a sentence in your head before you write it down.

Write it down and check it makes sense and has the right punctuation.

Use some adjectives to make your sentences more interesting.

Use some conjunctions to make your sentences longer.

Tuesday Literacy Lesson 2

Look at the power point about recycling and talk about what you have learnt with an adult.

Make a poster about the importance of recycling.

or

Make a poster about the importance of not dropping litter.

Put some diagrams on your poster.

(Pictures with labels)

Write some statements on your poster. What are you trying to encourage people to do? What are you trying to encourage them not to do?

Wednesday literacy lesson 3

Today you are going to use an apostrophe to show something belongs to someone else.

Jane's book.

An apostrophe

The book belongs to Jane.

Look at the power point and do the activities on the power point.

Thursday literacy 4

Recap what an apostrophe is and have a go at the worksheets.

Friday literacy 5

Have a go at the comprehension Livy and the dream monster.

